

About the Salt Spring Island Basketry Guild

The Salt Spring Island Basketry Guild was formed in 1997 by a group of interested basketmakers and collectors.

The Guild meets regularly to share basketry skills, educate members about the traditions of basketry, and encourage and inspire each other through:

- hands-on learning of traditional and contemporary basketry techniques for all levels of experience
- guest speakers on basketry-related topics, such as
 - the history of basketry
 - basketmakers' travels
 - professional basketry artists and their work

And more...

- special workshops with well-known instructors
- material gathering and preparation
- field trips
- social events
- opportunities to show/exhibit work
- information on basketry-related events offered by other groups
